LG's NEWEST INNOVATIONS EARN WIDE RANGE OF HONORS AT CES 2022

LG OLED Continues Long-Standing History of Honors at World's Preeminent Consumer Technology Show

ENGLEWOOD CLIFFS, N.J., Jan. 14, 2022 – LG Electronics USA swept up a grand collection of CES® awards at the 2022 event across its home appliance, home entertainment and business solutions categories. Among the top honors earned were 24 CES Innovation Awards and the 2022 CES Editor's Choice awards from USA TODAY's consumer product reviews division, Reviewed.

In the USA TODAY / Reviewed program, LG was recognized as the most-awarded brand with LG's C2 series OLED TV, PuriCare™ AeroTower, DualUp Monitor, S95QR Soundbar and Washer and Dryer pair earning recognition based on four key criteria: innovation, technology, design and value.

As a pioneer and global leader in OLED technology, it comes as no surprise that LG's newest range of OLED TVs continued their CES dominance as one of, if not the most-awarded TVs at CES again this year. LG OLED TVs took home top-tier awards and honors for picture quality, performance and brand-new sizes. LG's new 42-inch C2 OLED TV and 97-inch G2 OLED TV, both of which feature LG's OLED evo technology, were among the highly recognized TV models that collected honors from industry-leading publications such as Business Insider, Mashable and Gear Patrol. The Verge additionally showcased LG's 42-inch C2 OLED TV in its Best of CES Awards 2022 noting it to be one of the staff's favorite announcements.

Garnering accolades from top publications such as Best Products, Tom's Guide and Business Insider, LG's PuriCare AeroTower was widely recognized for being one of the most exciting products of CES 2022 on behalf of its home appliance offerings. LG's Washer and Dryer Pair – its newest laundry solution that features LG's enhanced Artificial Intelligence Direct Drive (AI DD™) – was also recognized by leading lifestyle publications such as Good Housekeeping and Veranda.

From the CTA's official award program alone, LG won 24 CES Innovation Awards including the Best of Innovation Award for LG's 32-inch UHD UltraFine Display Ergo AI monitor. LG also received top accolades from tech experts at major media publications such as TechRadar, CNET, Techlicious, Dealerscope, PCMag, Ars Technica.
