LG

Life's Good

Live without limits and take your smart world to go. LG and Google combined forces to bring you their next innovation—the LG G Watch. View important information at a glance with a display that never sleeps, and extend your connectivity with Android™ Wear. Plus with a classic design and customizable style, G Watch is fit for every occasion. The LG G Watch is intuitive and comfortable so life will truly be more simple and convenient.

LG G Watch™

Slim, Comfortable Design

Bring style and sophistication to your wrist with a sleek, lightweight design made for every occasion.

Always-On Display

Check the time and see instant notifications on a bright, bold IPS Display that never sleeps.

Changeable Straps

Customize your flexible strap* with any standard 22 mm watchband to complement your mood or attire.

* Alternate watchbands sold elsewhere.

Compact Battery

Power through the day on a single charge with the slim, long-lasting 400 mAh battery.*

* Battery time varies with usage, network, applications used or environmental temperatures.

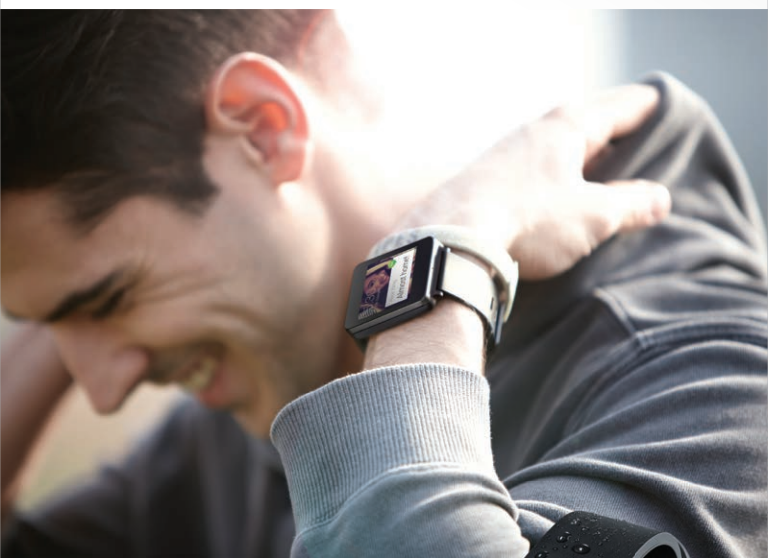

Powerful Processor

Experience smooth performance from your wrist with a Snapdragon™ 400 1.2 GHz Processor.

Durability

The LG G Watch is IP67 water and dust resistant—so you can wear it confidently on your many adventures and excursions.*

* The IP67 rating means that the product will maintain its operability even if it is gently submerged in a tank of still tap water at room temperature for about 30 minutes, up to a depth of 1 meter.
